A HIKE, WALK or TRAIL RUN Fundraiser for The Lord's Acre Saturday, Oct. 13, 9:00 a.m.

The Lord's Acre,

Fairview's Garden for Hunger, is proud to present the second annual . . .

Great Pumpkin Mountain Challenge!

This special, one-of-a-kind race takes place on beautiful, seldom-seen, private & protected mountain land in Fairview, NC. The land-owners are allowing this to support our cause.

Date: Sat., Oct. 13, 2012

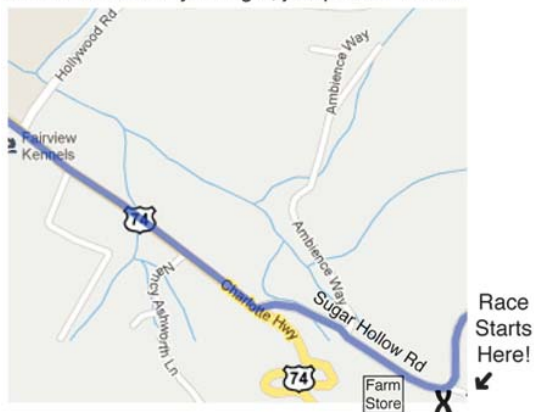

Time: 9:00 a.m.

Requested Donation: $20 for individuals ($15 Student); $30 for couples & families.

Why: The Lord's Acre is a local, nonprofit garden growing fresh organic food (13 tons in 3 years!) for the hungry. Your support helps us feed needy people good food—right here!

Location: On Sugar Hollow Road, Fairview, just past the Hickory Nut Gap Farm Store.

From Asheville, take 74A East about 9 miles. At the end of the long straight stretch (road is now two lanes), just as 74A starts to climb the mountain, Sugar Hollow Road "V's" off to the Left. The event starts 1/4 mile down this road on your right, just past the store.

There are Three Classes:

Trail Run (unofficial): a 10k loop run up the east side of Tater Knob (900' climb), into Florence Nature Preserve, & back (note: part of the climb uses ropes!).
IMPORTANT: Only 200 Runners Allowed! (Also, this will be informally—not electronically/officially—timed.)

Guided Hike: A guided hike up through Florence Nature Preserve and back. Side hike to the top of Tater Knob possible.

Guided Walk: A guided woodland walk up to historic Sherrill's Inn (tour included) and back down to the Hickory Nut Gap Farm Store.

Awards: No trophies, no tee-shirts.

→ Instead, Every Finisher in Every Class Gets a Pumpkin!
